HUGHES FAMILY

Early genealogists have said that our family is of Welsh origin and about which there seems to be no doubt, indeed, the name of the progenitor of our family, Humphrey Hughes, very definitely designates Welsh origin. Welsh names derive from a son who would adopt his father's name as a last name and add "S" or "es". Thus Humphrey ap Hugh, as he was known in Wales, became Humphrey Hughes. William ap William became William Williams and thus we account for so many double names in persons of Welsh descent.

The collecting of the genealogy of the Hughes Family has indeed been a pleasure. It has been carried on as an avocation covering about fifteen years. When I began the collection of this data, it was not with the thought of producing a genealogy, but just to satisfy my own desire to know more about our early ancestors in this country. It was such a very interesting hobby that I continued to search and collect until I found that I had accumulated valuable genealogical information which it is probable that no other person would ever put together and for the purpose of preserving this information for posterity, I am putting it in print.

There are other Hughes families in New Jersey which have no connection with ours and I have not attempted to include them, but have confined my work to the direct descendants of our first ancestor, Humphrey Hughes. Mention is made of the Matthew Hughes family of Bucks County, Pa. and it appears very certain that this family belongs in our line but I have not found that connection. There is another Hughes family from Northumberland County, Pa., which likewise is indicated to be connected with ours. Philadelphia (Hughes) Lount and her husband, Gabriel Lount, went from Northumberland County to Canada in 1811. Her brother, Ellis Hughes and his wife, Mary (Easterly) Hughes, followed them in 1819. Descendants of this family are still living in Toronto and correspondence is invited.

There is much additional work to be done. I have addresses of many persons, who, I am certain, can supply missing data on their immediate ancestors and their families. There are many lines that have stopped for want of additional information and which I am certain is available if the records are searched.

It is now my intention to continue the work both in early generations and current generations. All persons interested, or having information not printed herein, are invited to correspond.

Apology is made for errors which may have been made in the collecting and compiling of the data in this book. I have received information from members of the same family and which give different dates and it is impossible that all should be correct. It is my intention to publish, at some future time, a supplemental volume if sufficient additional data is available, and corrections and additions will be made.

HUGHES FAMILY

1. HUMPHREY HUGHES, The progenitor of the Hughes family of Cape May County, N. J., appeared very early in Long Island. The Rev. Paul Sturtevant Howe, author of "Mayflower Descendants in Cape May County", told the author of this genealogy that he had found traces of Humphrey Hughes as early as 1650. There is reason to believe that this Humphrey Hughes may not have been the first of his family to settle in the New World, and his father, also named Humphrey Hughes, may also have been here. In an early record, a deed for the purchase of land from the Indians, bears the name of Humphrey Hughes (his x mark) as witness, which indicates that this Humphrey Hughes could not write. The Humphrey Hughes, whom we designate as Humphrey Hughes 1st, and who is the progenitor of this family, signed his name many places as shown by the Southampton Town Records. It is a reasonable assumption that the Humphrey Hughes who signed with an "X" may have been the father of our Humphrey Hughes. Further support is given to this theory by the fact that the will of Jedediah Hughes, known to be a son of Humphrey Hughes, dated Jan. 25, 1714, names three of his brothers, also makes a bequest to "my cousin Martha Hughes." If Jedediah Hughes had a cousin "Martha Hughes" then our Humphrey Hughes must have had a brother in this country and also his father could have been here.

Matthew Hughes, who came to Bucks County, Pa. in 1696 from Long Island, married in 1700, Elizabeth Biles Beakes, daughter of William and Joanna Biles who came to Bucks County from Dorchester, Eng. in 1679, and widow of Stephen Beakes, son of William and Mary Beakes who came to Bucks County from Blackwell Somerset, England in 1682. This Matthew Hughes had a son Matthew, who preceeded him in death. Matthew Hughes Jr. had several children among whom were Humphrey Hughes and Constantine Hughes, both of these names being peculiar to our Hughes family. Early genealogists said that these children were related to the "four brothers" and this reference is found often and with additional data which identifies the "four brothers" as being Humphrey, Jedediah, John and Constant, all sons of our Humphrey. This also gives support to the theory that our progenitor did have other members of his family in this country.

Early genealogists stated that our family was of Welsh origin and about which there seems to be no question altho this author has not been able to establish the Welsh family from which they came. Perhaps some data may be found later which will give us that connection.

The town records of Southampton contain many references to Humphrey Hughes. In 1658 Humphrey Hughes and John Griggs became involved in a controversy with John Scott and Lion Gardiner. The ship Roebuck, Captain John Penny, had been hired by a Dutchman to bring freight from the Manhadoes (Manhattan Island) to Easthampton and was confiscated by Griggs and Hughes. Gardiner, at the behest of John Scott, took the ship in charge and finding "that principles of law beyond the learning of the town magistrates were involved," the matter was referred to the Court at Hartford, Conn. Apparently the plaintiff did not have much confidence in the justice of his cause as he failed to appear and then in March 1659 Gardiner wrote to Governor Winthrop complaining bitterly of the treatment which he received.

In 1660 there was recorded at Southampton an agreement between James Mills of Virginia and Thomas Revell of Barbadoes, witnessed by John Richbell and Humphrey Hughes.

In 1666 Humphrey Hughes received a whaling grant from Peter Carteret and in 1667 there is recorded at Southampton the transfer of a one-third interest in the grant to Nicholas Stevens of Boston and a one-third interest to John Cooper of Southampton.

On Oct. 30, 1672, Joseph Ludlam, of Oyster Bay, leased to Humphrey Hughes, of Southampton, all his land in Southampton and agreed to build a house on the land, the house to be twenty-five feet long by eighteen or nineteen feet wide, said lease to begin when the house was finished.

On Nov. 5, 1679, the town of Southampton, by major vote, gave Humphrey Hughes ten acres of land "lying northward of ye old mill pond, next to ye land laid out to Edward Howell."

Lists of townsmen in 1694 give his wife's name as Martha and mention five of his sons by name. The last record of Humphrey Hughes in Long Island is a deed in 1699 signed by both Humphrey Hughes and his wife, Martha, disposing of his Southampton property.

In 1689 Humphrey Hughes purchased from Simon Charles 243 acres of land on Cape Island, N. J., and as this land was later in the possession of Ellis and Jacob Hughes, sons of Constant Hughes, and grandsons of Humphrey Hughes 1st, it is probable that this purchase was made by our progenitor rather than by his son Humphrey Hughes 2nd.

There is no further record of Humphrey Hughes 1st in Cape May but a court held at the house of Shamgar Hand on the 21st of May 1705, names "widow Hughes and Constant, her son," so the first Humphrey must have died between 1699 and 1705. No record has been found of the death of his wife, Martha Hughes, but the will of their son Jedidiah Hughes, dated Jan. 25, 1714, names three of his brothers, and makes a bequest "to my cousin Martha Hughes, a piece of cloth which I purchased for my mother," therefore we may be certain that she died between 1705 and 1714.

5. JEDIDIAH<sup>2</sup> HUGHES, died in New York City, his will being dated Jan. 25, 1714, and proved shortly thereafter. He named his brothers, Humphrey Hughes, John Hughes and Constant Hughes in his will. He also bequeathed "a piece of cloth" which he stated was purchased for his mother, "to my cousin Martha Hughes." Apparently Jedidiah Hughes was married and his wife preceeded him in death, leaving no children, as the inventory of his estate included house furnishings.

6. JOHN<sup>2</sup> HUGHES was listed in the list of inhabitants of Southampton, Long Island in 1694. He settled in Mannington Township, Salem County, N. J., where he died in 1719. He married, first, May 25, 1690, Martha Buckley. Married, second, Rebecca -----who was named in his will, together with his sons by his first wife.

He is established as a son of Humphrey Hughes 1st by the will of Jedidiah Hughes which names Humphrey and Constant as his brothers. He is established as the father of Ellis Hughes and the grandfather of Memucan Hughes by the record of earmarks. In Cape May Courthouse, Deed Book A Miscellaneous, Page 6, is recorded "Constant Hughes this earmark being a half penny on the upper side of the right ear. Recorded 27 day of Jan 1707". In Deed Book A Miscellaneous, Page 43, is recorded "The earmark of Memucan Hughes being the upper side of the right ear. Entered this 20th day of August 1760 it being the mark of my grandfather, Constant Hughes". Alongside each of these registrations is drawn the picture of a steer's head with the earmark cut in the upper side of the right ear. Constant Hughes was master of sailing vessels sailing between Virginia and Boston. He was sheriff of Cape May County 1740 to 1744.

The entry on this list for David Hughes shows: "David Hughes L14.12.6 allowed in roll of July 78 Herons Co." His name last appears on an "Account of all Monies received and paid by Capt. Moses White of Col. Moses Hazen's Reft. of Foot--to the Officers & Privates of said Reft., from the first day of June to the thirty first day of October 1778 inclusive," dated January, 1779, which shows: "Due Absent 51<sup>30</sup> dol.; For what Months, 7 Mo. 21 D's preecid'g 1 Novr.; Sum receivd., 51.30 dol." The date or manner of his separation from the service is not shown.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information may be obtained from the Veterans Administration, Washington, D. C. which has custody of the United States pension and land warrant records.

It is not the practice of this Department to furnish copies of statements of service. Such copies, if desired, may be made by any person, and if certification is necessary they may be sworn to before a notary.

44. HUMPHREY HUGHES 5th, born Cape May, 1752; died at sea after Nov. 1778. Married in 1774, Jane Whilldin, born Cape May, June 15, 1756; died in Cape May, Dec. 26, 1790, daughter of James Whilldin and Jane (Hand) Whilldin. After the death of Humphrey Hughes, Jane Whilldin Hughes married Jeremiah Edmunds, on July 17, 1780 by whom she had three children. The marriage of Humphrey Hughes and Jane Whilldin has been disputed, the claim that there was no such marriage being based on two facts. Jane Whilldin was married by license of July 17, 1780 to Jeremiah Edmunds and it was as Jane Whilldin that she was married, it therefore has been claimed that she had no marriage with Humphrey Hughes, as no license had been found. On November 9, 1778 Humphrey Hughes was granted a Privateering commission in Philadelphia and declared his residence as Philadelphia. Cape May people may not have been familiar with their marriage and after Humphrey Hughes was dead, it is easily understood why she might have been called Jane Whilldin and not concerned herself if her license for the second marriage was made out under the name of Jane Whilldin. The other basis for dispute of the marriage is the will of her father, James Whilldin. This will dated Oct. 11, 1780 has "Item, and my will is for the same consideration that he (James) likewise bring up, take care and educate and maintain the son of my daughter Jane commonly known by the name of Humphrey Hughes, until he shall attain the age of 14, etc". It has been claimed that this statement in the will proves that the grandson was not the issue of a legal marriage. There is just as much reason to claim that this will substantiates a legal marriage. James Whilldin claims Humphrey Hughes as his grandson and wants him cared for and as the mother now had another name he uses Humphrey Hughes' full name and tells who he is in no uncertain language. It appears that James Whilldin, rather than saying that Humphrey Hughes 6th is not the legal son of Humphrey Hughes 5th, is making certain that he continues to be known as Humphrey Hughes instead of assuming the name Edmunds, the name of his step-father, and becoming known as Humphrey Edmunds.

This author has in his possession a photostat of the privateer papers issued to Humphrey Hughes commanding the New Comet.

Humphrey Hughes
Thomas Leaming

Humphrey Hughes 6th, son of Humphrey Hughes 5th and Jane Whilldin Hughes was born Nov. 20, 1775, therefore almost three years old when the above bond was signed. James Whilldin was a magistrate and certainly would not have sat idly by for three years and done nothing if the father of his daughter's son had not married her. There is also another angle to this; Thomas Leaming who signed this bond with Humphrey Hughes was a relative of the Whilldins. Are we to believe that he would not only have trusted the command of his ship to Humphrey Hughes but also signed the performance bond if he did not have implicit faith and trust in Humphrey Hughes. He looked upon Humphrey Hughes as an upright, honest and honorable man. This alone would indicate that there was nothing wrong between the Whilldins and Humphrey Hughes.

Now for the positive facts regarding this marriage. Three Cape May historians record this marriage. Franklin D. Edmunds gives the date of this marriage as 1774. Dr. Paul Sturtevant Howe, author of Mayflower Descendants in Cape May County records this marriage also dating it 1774. Dr. Howe was a painstaking historian and genealogist, mentioning this marriage twice, and there is nothing to indicate that he had any doubt about the marriage of Humphrey Hughes and Jane Whilldin.

The third historian is the Rev. Daniel Lawrence Hughes, who published about 1893 "The Divine Covenant Fulfilled in Pious Households" and which contains much Hughes family history and genealogy. Daniel Lawrence Hughes married Elmira Williams Hughes, a grand-daughter of Humphrey Hughes 5th and Jane Whilldin. Daniel and his father were both contemporaries of Jane's son Humphrey, who was Daniel's father-in-law.

44. HUMPHREY HUGHES 5th, con't.

Daniel's grand-father, Jacob Hughes Jr., was a contemporary of both Humphrey Hughes 5th and Jane Whilldin. All were residents of Cape May Lower Township and both Daniel's people and the Whilldins attended Cold Spring Presbyterean Church. Daniel Lawrence Hughes was known as a "Hellfire" preacher and it is very unlikely that he would have compromised himself by even stretching the truth let alone telling a deliberate lie because if there was any doubt about this marriage, Daniel would have known it.

Daniel declares in no uncertain terms the genealogy of his wife, Elmira Williams Hughes, saying that her grandparents on her father's side were Humphrey Hughes, who died at sea while her father was a child, and Jane Whillden Hughes, the daughter of James Whilldin, an own sister to "Uncle" Matthew Whilldin, and further states that their only child was Humphrey Hughes. He then records the second marriage of Jane Whillden, saying that after her husband's death, Mrs. Jane W. Hughes married Jeremiah Edmunds and had three children, Elizabeth, Mahala and Jeremiah Edmunds.

Daniel, in another place, records the parents of Elmira W. Hughes saying that they were Capt. Humphrey Hughes, the only child of Humphrey and Jane Whilldin Hughes, and Hetty Williams Hughes, the only child of Lt. William Williams and Abigail Collins Williams.

I can find no reason to believe that this marriage was not a legal marriage and as doubt has been cast upon it, I am listing all the facts which I have been able to obtain, and in my opinion they all go to prove the marriage rather than to disprove it. This lineage has been accepted by the Society of Mayflower Descendants, on lineage papers of John Laughlin Williamson, General Number 17987, Ohio Number 809.

SUSAN PRISCILLA LEE was descended from JAMES LEE who lived in the province of Ulster, Ireland, and who married ISABELLA BOSCAWEN, daughter of HUGH BOSCAWEN, 1st Viscount Falmouth, and CHARLOTTE GODFREY, who was the daughter of COL. CHARLES GODFREY AND ARABELLA CHURCHILL, sister of the great DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH.

The following is a copy of a clipping from either a New York or Philadelphia newspaper published in 1885.

Homer Lee is a tall young man with dark burnside whiskers and a genial face. Persons meeting him usually express wonder at finding him so youthful. He came here from Ohio about fifteen years ago as an engraver. His success has been due to hard work. The Lee families of the country are all allied more or less closely with the Lees of Virginia. Homer Lee, who has a taste for the accumulation of old and curious antiquities, showed me a few days ago a letter written to him by his uncle, the result of which on its reception by him was to bring to light a long hidden chapter in the history of the Lees. I quote from the letter which is signed by Robert Lee (Judge Robert Lee of Bucyrus, Ohio). It contains a glimpse of the Confederate leader which is interesting.

"I met General Robert E. Lee in Philadelphia at the outbreak of the Mexican War. He was a young officer. I found him a very pleasant and intelligent gentleman, who had the genealogy of the Lee family to a marked degree. He said that during some of the wars or revolutions in England a portion of the Lee family left England and settled in Ireland and that many of their descendants, both from England and Ireland, emigrated to this country, but all were descendants of one original ancestry.

His narrative was very interesting but has nearly faded from my recollection. He told me of the loss of the Faithful Steward, which I also heard from my grandfather. A large number of the family engaged passage to this country on said ship; among the number was my grandfather, Thomas Lee, with all his family, but when they arrived at the port (Londonderry) the ship was so crowded they could not get passage and were compelled to wait for the next ship that sailed for Philadelphia.

The Faithful Steward was a new ship, insured for more than its real value. Somewhere in the Bay, the captain ran the ship upon a rock and wrecked her to pieces. The passengers, alarmed, pleaded with the Captain to shun the rock; but he swore he would drive the ship through or 'sink her to hell', and such was the terrible result. The Captain, his officers and sailors, manned their boats, left for shore, and left the passengers to perish. Among the number lost were forty-eight of the Lee family, uncles, aunts and cousins of my father, Rev. Robert Lee, and among that number was one young lady, 'Pretty Polly Lee' of wonderful beauty and accomplishments, called 'The Irish Beauty'. Many of the passengers secured pieces of the wreck and hoped to reach shore, but were carried out by the tide and lost.

Three men (not of the Lee family) held onto the wreck until the going-in tide, then each put two or three guineas in his mouth and swam ashore. One of these men visited my father when I was a small boy and gave an account of the whole affair, and how he felt after reaching the shore in a strange land, without friends, and there was a general crying scene in the family during the narrative.

A few days after the loss of the Faithful Steward, the ship which brought my grandfather and family to this country arrived in port. When they heard of the loss of the Faithful Steward and their friends, grandfather armed himself and hunted some days for the Captain to kill him, which he would have done had he found him, for he was a spirited Irishman, but the Captain had fled from the country. The ship was new and heavily insured."

The reception of this letter incited Homer Lee to make inquiries in England as to the record of the Faithful Steward. He wrote to Sir Thomas Farrar, who caused an investigation of the old books and documents of the Public Record Office. These three memoranda were all that could be found in Lloyd's list, and are extracts from the dates named.

"April 12, 1785—Londonderry. Arrived from Rhode Island, Faithful Steward. McCausland."

"August 30, 1785—Captain Castle of the Ashley, arrived in the river from Jamaica. On the 1st inst. spoke the Faithful Steward, McCausland, from Londonderry to Philadelphia, in Lat. 44N. Long. about 36 W. All well."

November 28, 1785—The Faithful Steward, McCausland, from Londonderry to Philadelphia, is totally lost in the Delaware, and 200 people lost." It was a curious coincidence that just one hundred years from the date of this last fatal record, Mr. Lee should yesterday become possessed of it and exhibit it to me with his uncle's letter.

Statement of Capt. Albert W. Lee of Uniontown,
Ohio, made about Feb. 4, 1895.

James Lee, my grandfather was born Jan. 14, 1759, in County Donegal, Ireland, was a grandson of James Lee and Isabella Boscawen (a daughter of Lord Boscawen). He left Ireland in 1785 with his parents, three brothers, two sisters, a brother's wife, three uncles, three aunts and thirty-three cousins, in all forty-eight of Lee connections, on board the "Faithful Steward" from Londonderry to Philadelphia, Pa. The vessel was wrecked on the Delaware coast, thirty miles south of Delaware Bay, Sept. 1, 1785. Most of the Lee connections drowned. The young lady "of wonderful beauty and accomplishments" was Mary Lee, sister of my grandfather. Afterward there was quite a lengthy poem written in praise of her beauty and accomplishments. My father says that in his boyhood he heard old Miss Polly Pollock singing the song "Pretty Polly Lee" at his father's house. The Elliots near Zanesville, Ohio are some of the descendants of the cousins saved from the wreck. Hugh, your great ancestor, and my great grandfather, who was drowned, were brothers, sons of James and Isabella Boscawen Lee.

Another son of James settled in Carroll County, Ohio and Gen. Robert E. Lee sometimes visited them. He was there once after the Civil War.

James Lee, my grandfather, married Elizabeth Rankin of Fayette County, Pa., where he died Dec. 21, 1843, in the 85th year of his age.

The following is a copy of a letter addressed to
Miss Caroline Virginia Lee, Holliday's Cove, West
Va., by James Beveridge Lee under date of Jan. 26, 1904.

Your note of inquiry regarding my family line and relationship has been a long time unanswered because of the pressure of engagements which could not wait. Since receiving your letter I have assigned you to the ranks of my relations, and with a minister, relations come in where they can, parishioners coming first.

I have been wondering since your mention of the "Faithful Steward" where your family touches mine. My great ancestor, Thomas Lee and wife, with relatives were drowned in the wrecking of the vessel. His son, James Lee escaped, went to Washington Co., Pa., where he married. His son, James Lee, of Cadiz, Ohio, was my grandfather. His son, the Rev. James Boscawen Lee, of Franklinville, N. Y., my father.

I believe there were three other Lees who escaped the fate of the majority of passengers on the "Faithful Steward" and some cousins, Elliotts, but I can tell you nothing of them without reference to the genealogical record which my older brother has. If you will kindly furnish me with the data of your own lineage I will help you trace it, provided the suggestions given here are insufficient.

In my family I have three brothers and a sister. My oldest brother, Thomas H. is an attorney at Haverstraw, N. Y., my next younger brother a professor in the Eng. Dept. of Cornell Univ., my youngest brother a Pres. minister in Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa., My sister, unmarried, is the youngest and at home.

I have a wife and three children. The only girl is twelve years old, Helen, the boys are Meredith 7, and Schuyler 5 years old.

I have a very pleasant acquaintance with a family of Lees one of whom is a minister in N. Y. (Pres.) the other in Phila (Pres.) and another a missionary. The tradition of their family says that their great ancestor expected to sail on the Faithful Steward but was hindered. The father of these three boys bore such a striking resemblance to the General Robert E. Lee that he was at different times mistaken for him.

The largest records of our Lee family are in the hands of Mr. Homer Lee, the artist of New York City. He is uncle to the young men mentioned above.

Hoping to hear from you further in the future, I am, Miss Lee, evidently

Your Cousin,

8 Waverly Place
Milwaukee, Wis. Jan. 26, 1904.

James Beveridge Lee.

The following is from a letter written to Caroline Virginia Lee.

Dear Miss Lee:

I have read your letter with very much interest and regret this necessary delay in reply.

My grandfather was Rev. Robert Lee as you supposed. It is a striking fact that my own name and that of your brother (lost to you while preparing for the ministry) are so nearly the same and another coincidence that one of the names of my only child, a daughter of eleven years, is the same as one of your own, Virginia Clark Lee.

My father, Samuel Porter Lee, often told me of the coming to this country and the loss of the Faithful Steward and the cause of the wreck. I now deeply regret that record was not made of the story as our fathers and grandfathers knew it.

*****

My uncle, Robert Lee, a judge in Bucyrus, Ohio, was personally acquainted with Robert E. Lee and in a meeting after the war traced out their distant cousinship only to let it be forgotten.

Most Sincerely,

5516 Morris St.,
Germantown, Philadelphia,
March 26, 1907.

Wm. P. Lee

THE LEE FAMILY

JAMES LEE, lived in the Province of Ulster, Ireland, but we do not know if that was the place of his birth. He was, without any question, of English ancestry, the family fleeing to Ireland during some of the religious wars. He married Isabella Boscawen, whose ancestry is given above. She was born about 1711. Their issue

HUGH LEE, born Donegal County, Ireland, 1740; died Cross Creek, Pa., Aug. 28, 1813. Married Mary Elliott, born 1745, died Nov. 30, 1820. Both tomb-stones are in the Cross Creek village cemetery, giving the dates of their death and their age. So far as we know, all of the children of James Lee and Isabella Boscawen Lee were aboard the "Faithful Steward" and Hugh Lee was the only one of the children of James Lee who was saved. His wife, Mary Elliott was saved, also the children of James Lee Jr. The children of Hugh Lee and Mary Elliott Lee were,

WILLIAM LEE, born County Donegal, Ireland, 1767; came to this country with his parents, Hugh Lee and Mary Elliott Lee. The Faithful Steward was wrecked off the coast of Delaware September 1785, while bound from Londonderry to Philadelphia. All of the children of Hugh and Mary Lee were therefore born in Ireland. It is peculiar to note that, while none of Hugh's brothers and sisters were saved, his wife and all their children escaped death. William Lee was apparently betrothed to Jane Elliott in Ireland, because shortly after the family settled in Cross Creek, Pa., he rode horseback across the mountains to meet her when she came to this country about 1792, and they were married soon after. — Author

ALEXANDER BLACK, born at sea when his parents were en route to this country. His grandson, Major George Black, gave an interview to John D. Shane, which is among the Draper papers in the library of the Wisconsin Historical Society, Madison, Wis., describing the migration of the family from Virginia to Kentucky and stated that his grandfather was born at sea while his parents were on their way to this country, but he failed to mention the names of the immigrants so we do not know the names of the first generation of this family in this county.

ALEXANDER BLACK appeared in Augusta (now Bath) County, Virginia, in 1746 at which time he purchased land on the Cowpasture River. It is almost certain that he came into Virginia from Pennsylvania with other Scotch-Irish who settled in Virginia at that time, and that his parents died in Pennsylvania as no trace of them is found in the Augusta County records. Alexander Black qualified as Lieutenant of Foot Soldiers before the county court of Augusta County on Aug. 20, 1752. The name of his wife is unknown. He died in Augusta County in 1764. His oldest son, WILLIAM BLACK, born about 1735, married on Jan. 12, 1873, Sarah Hickling, daughter of Thomas Hickling, also an early settler on the Cowpasture River in Augusta County. WILLIAM BLACK served in the Colonial Wars, his name being on the muster roll of Capt. George Wilson's company of Rangers in 1757 and 1758. Among the Draper papers in the Wisconsin Historical Society library in Madison, Wis., is an original receipt book of Capt. William Preston, in which are found two receipts signed by WILLIAM BLACK, one dated Oct. 5, 1757, for thirty four shillings for thirty four days pay as soldier at Fort Lewis under the command of Sergt. Hugut. The other is for two pounds, thirteen shillings, in full for pay from June 8 to Nov. 29, 1757.

WILLIAM BLACK also was allowed Land Bounty certificate No. 2566 for military services in Preston's company in 1758, Augusta County records, order book No. 17, page 183, dated Feb. 15, 1870. WILLIAM BLACK also served in the Revolution. In the Council Journals of the State of Virginia, Vol. 1, page 310, under date of Saturday 11, 1777, appears an order "that a warrant issue to William Black for one hundred and twenty seven pounds, eighteen shillings, upon account together with instructions to recruit a first lieutenant's quota of men for Company of regulars in the service of the state. Bond executed, acknowledged and ordered to be filed". The same Council Journals also record the payment of money to SARAH BLACK for the weaving of cloth and making tents for the soldiers. Revolutionary service proved on

D.A.R. lineage of Mrs. Robert E. Morrison (Maxine Geneva Hughes) National No. 301152, Cincinnati Chapter No. 1069. WILLIAM BLACK, with his wife and entire family, moved to Clark County, Ky., in 1792. He died there on Feb. 14, 1811. His oldest son;

ALEXANDER BLACK, born Augusta County, Va., Oct. 14, 1765, came to Kentucky before the family moved from Virginia; lived for three years at Strode's Station. Married on Feb. 20, 1793, Jane Crockett, daughter of James and Martha Gay Crockett. Received a face wound from an arrow in the battle of Fallen Timbers, Aug. 20, 1794. Commissioned Ensign on March 21, 1806, in the 36th Regiment of Kentucky Militia by Governor Greenup. Moved to Champaign County, Ohio in 1809. Received a Captain's commission in the War of 1812. Jane Crockett Black died July 21, 1849. Both buried in Kings Creek Cemetery, Salem Township, Champaign County, Ohio. His third child and second son;

JAMES BLACK, born Clark County, Ky., Feb. 8, 1798, came to Ohio in 1809 with his parents. On March 6, 1832, he married Caroline Culbertson, daughter of John Boyd Culbertson and Susanna Douglass Culbertson, who came from Pennsylvania to Champaign County, Ohio in 1832.

ANDREW CULBERTSON, father of John Boyd Culbertson, served in the Revolution in Col. Hunter's Battalion from Northumberland County, Pa. Andrew Culbertson lineage proved on D.A.R. lineage of Mrs. Robert E. Morrison (Maxine Geneva Hughes) National No. 301152, Cincinnati Chapter No. 1069.

Caroline Culbertson was born in Erie County, Pa., Jan. 26, 1810; died Jan. 11, 1885. James Black died July 3, 1882. Both are buried in Fairview Cemetery, West Liberty, Ohio. The youngest child of JAMES AND CAROLINE (CULBERTSON) BLACK;

JAMES WASHINGTON BLACK, born Salem Township, Champaign County, Ohio, Oct. 28, 1853; died Sept. 2, 1939.
